Cheryl,

Thank you for your congratulatory note. Yes, I was asked by the Biden Administration to serve as Acting Administrator – humbling and daunting responsibility. It has been exciting and exhausting – no rest for the weary - like the G7/G20 negotiations. Hope my stint as Acting Administrator is not too long and I can rejoin you for the G7 and chocolate celebration.

Dear Acting Administrator of EPA,

I was very sorry not to see you today during our opening G7 meeting, you were very much missed. However, when Hodayah informed me of the reason for your absence I had to cheer, even though we are missing your interventions. I am so pleased for you to be stepping into this role even temporarily!

I think we may need to put significant time aside for a catch-up when we can meet again in order to get through all of the celebratory chocolates that we need to add to the current chocolate list!

Huge Congratulations and I look forward to hearing from you when your time is your own again,

Best wishes

Cheryl
